Election Day Emergency No Parking Restrictions and Potential Road Closures

Tuesday, November 3 at 12 AM to Wednesday,
November 4 at 11:59 PM

First Amendment activities have the potential to disrupt business operations.

ReadyDC has resources to help businesses create emergency plans, protect critical information, train and exercise employees, and improve the workforce's personal preparedness efforts.

Find a First Amendment Demonstration Resource Guide for Businesses at ready.dc.gov

By preparing ahead of time, you can better protect your employees, guests, and property.

DC Government is already working with Business Improvement Districts (BIDs) and Main Streets.

On Election Day, the District's Emergency Operations Center will be activated.

At this time, DC has not requested any National Guard or mutual assistance.

If that changes, Mayor Bowser will communicate those requests with the leaders of other states and DC residents.
