

PUTTING FAMILIES FIRST IN DC

APPROACH: Using a resident-driven model to build on family and community strengths to ensure every family has a fair shot.

TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE

Place-based trauma-informed care sites will provide residents impacted by violence with the support and services necessary to heal individually and collectively

CONNECTED SCHOOLS

This initiative will establish schools as neighborhood hubs by providing wraparound services for students, families and community members

FAMILIES FIRST DC INITIATIVE

Establishing Family Success Centers in 10 neighborhoods East of the River to empower families, integrate services, and focus on upstream services to ensure families are safe, healthy, and able to thrive

TRAUMA CENTERS

In addition to the 10 Families First DC sites and the 8 Connected Schools, the FY 2020 Budget also funds, through the Office of Victim Services and Justice Grants, three new sites where residents can get trauma-informed services and where the District can train community leaders in strategies for addressing trauma.
