The District's indoor mask requirements will be dialed back on March 1, 2022.

Based on DC's current transmission rate, DC Health will keep the mask advisory, first issued in December 2021, in place.

On March 1, masks will NOT be required at:

- Restaurants and bars
- Sports and entertainment venues
- Gyms, recreation centers, and indoor athletic facilities
- Houses of worship
- Businesses
- Grocery stores and pharmacies
- Retail establishments
- DC Government offices/areas with no public interaction

On March 1, masks STILL will be required at:

- Any private business that wants to require use of masks by its employees or customers
- Schools, childcare facilities, and libraries
- Congregate facilities: nursing homes/assisted living facilities, shelters, dorms, and correctional facilities
- Healthcare/medical facilities
- Public transit, taxis, and rideshare vehicles
- DC Government facilities with direct interaction between employees and the public (e.g., DMV service centers, DHS service centers)

Beginning February 15, 2022, indoor venues will no longer be required to verify that patrons are vaccinated.

Businesses may choose to keep vaccination requirements in place.
